

Week commencing 15.09.2025

English: This week we will be re-capping the story 'Super Duper You' by Sophy Henn. We will be looking at some familiar superhero and will be thinking about why they wear capes. We will then design and write about our own cape. We will also be writing captions to match the story.

Phonics: - We will be recapping the sounds learnt in reception.

Maths: - We will be counting objects from a large group (up to 10 objects) and recognising numbers as numerals and words.

Science: We will begin to learn about our senses and this week we will have a particular focus on the sense of hearing.

Music: - Listen and appraise the song 'Fresh Prince of Bel Air!' by Will Smith and find the pulse to 'Hey You', using claves.

PSHE: - We will be thinking of ways to make our classroom a safer place for everybody to learn and will be making our own classroom rules.

R.E: - We will continue to look at how Christians believe God gives.

At home you could:

- Children will be coming home with the NumBots Log in stuck into their reading records. Please could you practice logging in and creating your avatar. Take some time to explore the programme with your children.
- Please read with your children for 10 minutes every day and write in their reading records.
