

Week commencing 22.09.2025

English: This week the children will become detectives! We don't want to give too much away but they will use their detective skills to write about what they saw and 'who dunnit...'

Phonics: - We will be recapping the following sounds /ay/ /ou/ /ie/ and /ea/ as well as the harder to read and spell words the children learnt in reception.

Maths: - We will be counting forwards and backwards and finding numbers that are one more than a given number. We will also find missing numbers on a number track.

Science: We will learn about the sense of taste and the children will taste the following: milk chocolate, popcorn (salty), lemon, dark chocolate cream crackers. If your child has allergies to any of the items above please provide them with a suitable alternative in a labelled tub. Please can class reps organise the donation of 1 of each of the food items to each class for Monday. Thank you.

Music: - Listen and appraise the song 'Rapper's Delight' by The Sugarhill Gang and continuing to use claves to find the pulse to Hey You.

PSHE: - We will talk about how it makes us feel when we are proud of an achievement.

Geography: - We will be exploring our local area through the use of Google earth and will be talking about local places that our familiar to us.

R.E: - We are discussing things in nature that we are thankful for.

Art: - We will be recognising what a portrait is and will be sketching our own portraits.

Computing: - We are beginning to sort items based on different categories.

Reminder that forest school starts on Thursday 25th.

Naming items

Please clearly label any items that your child is bringing into school as we have already had various things go missing. Thank you.
